STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

We have read the entire guidelines and application information and fully understand that the selection for the Southern Division ACDA Honor Choir begins with a significant musical and financial obligation. We understand and accept a registration fee of $175, which includes instruction, music, entertainment, T-shirt, 3 continental breakfasts, and 3 lunches. This fee DOES NOT include hotel, daily dinner, or transportation. We further understand that the applicant will be lodging in the convention assigned hotel with other students who will be participating in the Honor Choir. Applicants must be currently enrolled in and in excellent standing with the sponsoring organization (school, church, community choir, voice studio, etc.) during the application and participation portion of the event. We understand that the applicant, once selected must arrive for registration at the designated time and remain under supervision of the Southern Division ACDA staff until the culmination of the closing concert. If any portion of the rehearsal is missed for any reason, the applicant/participant will be removed from the Honor Choir and returned to the parent at the expense of the parent. The participant is committed to having the music fully prepared prior to the first rehearsal according to the instructions as provided by the clinician and the Southern Division staff. Chaperones MUST be provided by the sponsoring organization at a ratio of 1 chaperone per every two singers selected. Chaperones will attend and lodge in the convention hotel, but are not required to pay convention registration fees. Choral Directors attending the convention MAY not be used as chaperones. Further information will be forthcoming upon acceptance.
